EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

FOOTBALLER DIVINE: Diego Armando Maradona lived six decades. During one of those decades, the 1980s, his sublime skills on the football field transformed him into a demigod. The outpouring of grief after his demise this week was not limited to his native Argentina. He was a global icon. The high noon of his career was the 1986 World Cup, where his brilliance inspired a team to play beyond its capability and triumph. It remains one of the most consequential displays by an individual across the entire spectrum of team games. Maradona is arguably the most impactful footballer ever.

His iconic status was not just on account of his exploits on the field. Pele and he were after all joint winners of FIFA's award for the player of the 20th century. It was the vicissitudes of Maradona's life on and off the field that made him so relatable. For Argentina, throttled by a military junta, in seemingly irreversible economic decline and having received a drubbing in the Falklands War, Maradona's magic in the 1980s provided succour and hope. He was drawn to Latin America's polarising political leaders. The feeling was mutual. He had his "second father" Fidel Castro's face tattooed on his leg and Hugo Chavez was another friend.

Maradona's uniqueness lay in the manner in which people from all walks of life could use him to express themselves. England in the 1986 World Cup was at the receiving end of Maradona's most discussed goals, the infamous 'Hand of God' which was followed by a magical waltz past half the English team. Nineteen years later, Mervyn King, the Governor of the Bank of England, used Maradona's goals in that match to explain how modern Central Banks functioned. He had a name for it: The Maradona theory of interest rates. Match that, Ronaldo and Messi. — In The Times of India

Rare grape variety which is larger than chicken egg

Osaka: Photos of big grapes, larger than the average chicken egg, have been doing the rounds on Vietnamese social media raising questions about their authenticity and origin.

Novelty fruits are particularly popular in Japan, where specialised shops can sell certain varieties of apples, peaches, melons or grapes for mind-boggling prices. However, the popularity of such fruits has spread throughout Asia and recently, the Vietnamese owner of a market stall shared some photos of a new variety of grapes imported from Japan. Using social media to promote new products is fairly standard these days, only these photos got a lot more attention than usual, because of the apparent size of the grapes. Some of these white grapes seemed to be larger than a chicken egg.

Company wants to buy your face and sell it as a mask

Tokyo: There is a Japanese company that wants to buy the rights to people's faces so it can sell them in the form of hyper-realistic 3D-printed masks.

Ever since Kamenya Omoto, a Tokyo-based specialty mask maker and store, announced its intention to buy the rights to people's faces for 40,000 yen ($380) a pop, it's been overwhelmed with offers. The company wants to reproduce people's faces in the form of hyper-realistic masks and sell them for an estimated ($940).

If a mask proves popular with clients, the person whose appearance inspired it stands to earn a percentage of the profits as well. The controversial project, named "That Face", reportedly aims to give a sci-fi twist to the idea of buying and selling faces. The concept of selling the rights to your face for a profit seems very strange, but judging by the response Kamenya Omoto got in the last month, it stands to become very popular as well.

CESC Mysuru online bill
payment gateway problem

Sir,

Every month when we pay electricity bill online transaction doesn't get completed properly and we have to wait for 3 days for it to reflect (completed) in the system.

This has been happening for many months now and above this the debit card which is used for this CESC transactions doesn't work for other transactions after we use for CESC bill payment (otherwise the debit card before this payment works well on other sites like Amazon etc.). Hence, CESC may provide an email address in their website where our complaints can be sent.

I also request the authorities to change the payment gateway to reputed service providers instead of the present service provider.

New-born giraffe calf dies at Mysuru Zoo

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (MTY)- The calf, which was born to giraffes Babli and Bharat, on Tuesday night, died on Wednesday.

The new-born calf did not have suckling reflex and though the Zoo staff tried to feed bottle milk, the calf did not drink milk and passed away late on Wednesday night.

It may be recalled that a few years ago, a calf born to giraffe named Hani had died as Hani refused to feed its young one. Later, Hani started to feed her young ones and the number of giraffes in Mysuru Zoo increased.

Mysuru Zoo is known for its successful breeding of giraffes for the last three decades. Two-and-a-half-years ago, a male calf born to Babli and Bharat was given to Assam Zoo.

Reacting about the loss, Zoo Executive Director Ajit M. Kulkarni said: "We are shattered by the loss. The calf didn't have a suckling reflex and all our efforts to feed him went in vain. This is for the first time that a calf failed to suckle. On earlier occasions, mothers had rejected their young ones and calves had died but for the first time the calf didn't have the sucking reflex. It died of natural causes."

He claimed the mortality rate in giraffes in the wild is 50% but under controlled conditions, death happen hardly ever.

The authorities were happy after Babli, daughter of Kushi, became pregnant for the second time. Her first calf is hale and hearty. The Zoo currently displays eight of the tallest terrestrial animals in captivity.

Mysuru Zoo is one of the few Zoos in India to breed giraffes successfully for decades and the only one in Karnataka. It had given giraffes to Zoos across India including Patna (Bihar) and Bannerghatta National Park.

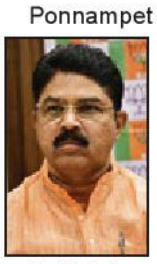
Revenue Minister R. Ashok to inaugurate Ponnampet Taluk tomorrow



R. Ashok

Ponnampet (South Kodagu), Nov. 28 - Years of struggle by numerous organisations which had been fighting for the formation of Ponnampet Taluk have ultimately achieved their goal with Revenue Minister R. Ashok set to inaugurate the newly-formed Ponnampet Taluk at 11 am tomorrow (Nov. 29).

The Ponnampet Court Complex building has been converted as Ponnampet Taluk Office, where Minister Ashok will inaugurate the new taluk, which has been carved out of Virajpet taluk. Ahead of the inauguration, the State Government has sanctioned Rs. 25 lakh as initial administrative cost. Besides the Government has appointed Kusuma as the first Tahsildar of the new taluk and 12 other staff.

Kodagu District Minister V. Somanna, Virajpet MLA K.G. Bopaiah, MLC Veena Achaiah and others will be present.

Meanwhile, Ponnampet Taluk Action Committee President Cheppudira Arun Machaiah has appealed everyone involved in the fight for the new taluk to be present during tomorrow's inauguration.

Addressing a press meet at Gonikoppal yesterday, Arun Machaiah said that the new Ponnampet taluk is being inaugurated even before the model code of conduct will come to force for Gram Panchayat polls.

Maintaining that personal invitations could not be sent due to paucity of time, he said that this is an open invitation for everyone to take part in this landmark inauguration. Noting that the inauguration will be a simple affair due to the deadly COVID-19 contagion, he said that the inauguration is being done ahead of GP polls for administrative reasons.

Reiterating that this is an open invitation for all GP, TP, ZP members and as well as members of Kodava Samaja, Yuva Okkoota, Mahila Samaja and all other organisations and citizens to take part in the event, he thanked MLA K.G. Bopaiah for his efforts to get Rs. 25 lakh sanctioned.

Recalling that the fight for the new taluk began in 2002 when M.P. Prakash was the Revenue Minister, Arun Machaiah said that after 18 years of struggle, the current Revenue Minister R. Ashok will inaugurate the new taluk tomorrow.

Citizens Action Committee President Pokkalichanda B. Poonacha said that he was thankful to all donors who contributed their mite for providing basic infrastructure. Pointing out that over Rs. 3 lakh has been spent on office furniture for the new taluk office, he appealed everyone to take part in tomorrow's inauguration.

Committee member M.T. Cariappa said that the previous coalition Government headed by H.D. Kumaraswamy announced the formation of new Ponnampet Taluk in the first quarter of last year.

Recalling the efforts of JD(S) leader Mangera Padmini Ponnappa in the announcement of the new taluk, he said that the valued suggestions of former Revenue Minister M.P. Prakash shaped the movement to demand formation of Ponnampet Taluk.

Machimada Ravindra and others were present at the press meet yesterday.

MLC Veena Achaiah visits Taluk Office

Ponnampet, Nov. 28 - Two days ahead of the inauguration, Congress MLC Veena Achaiah on Friday visited Ponnampet Tahsildar Office, the venue of tomorrow's inauguration event.

The MLC discussed issues concerning functioning of the new taluk office with Tahsildar Kusuma and other officials. She also asked them to work efficiently and appropriately towards making the new taluk a model one in the State.

Block Congress President Meederira Naveen, Secretary Balakrishna, senior party leaders P.K. Ponnappa, M.S. Kushalappa, Theethira Dharmaja and others were present.

DC inspects Kodava Heritage Centre in Madikeri

Madikeri, Nov. 28 (PS&DM)- With works on the ambitious Kodava Heritage Centre Project having recommenced after years of neglect, Kodagu Deputy Commissioner (DC) Annies Kanmani Joy visited the site on Thursday and reviewed the progress of work.

The Heritage Centre is coming up in a 4-acre land at Karavale Badaga village near Vidyanagar and close to Mahindra Holiday Resort, on the outskirts of Madikeri city.

The Kodava Heritage Centre envisaged by the Government in 2009-10 for introducing the unique Ainmane tradition of Kodavas with a Museum, was in limbo until recently. The Project features an Ainmane, a Hall, a small indoor water pond, an open auditorium, a Library, a Museum and drinking water facility.

The Public Works Department (PWD) has been entrusted with the task of executing the Project. The PWD had awarded the Rs.1.5 crore tender for completion of works to Madikeri-based Civil Contractor Kishore Babu.

The Project was launched on Sept. 21, 2011 and only the walls of the structure were built so far. There were complaints of poor quality work, while some others accused the authorities of improper planning and architecture. Over the years, the granite stones used for the steps have come apart and the incomplete walls have become dilapidated, unable to withstand the vagaries of nature.

Surprised by the undue delay in the execution of the Project, DC Annies Kanmani Joy, who is also Kodagu District Tourism Development Committee Chairperson, held a meeting on Sept. 6, 2020 during which she directed the officials to expedite the Project works.

Now the PWD, which has been tasked with the execution of the Project, has awarded the contract to Kishore Babu. The contractor has been asked to complete the works by March 2021. The Project was estimated to cost Rs. 88.75 lakh when it was envisaged over a decade ago. But the inordinate delay in the execution of the Project, has resulted in a huge cost escalation, with the Project now costing Rs. 3.3. crore.

MCC mulls to issue legal notices to water bill defaulters

Govt. institutions owe Rs. 48 crore of the total Rs. 202 crore dues

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (MK&SSV)- The cash-strapped Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) is mulling to issue legal notices to several Government institutions, industries and private companies which all put together owe water bill to the tune of Rs. 208 crore to the civic body for last so many years.

Gurudatta Hegde

"We will write to all the Government and private companies to immediately clear property tax and water bill immediately. If they failed to pay, we have no option except issuing legal notices to such departments and companies to recover money. A list of defaulting Government departments and private companies has been prepared," MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde told Star of Mysore.

Interestingly, of Rs.202 crore pending water bills, a number of Government departments like Zilla Panchayat, Gram Panchayats and University of Mysore owe Rs. 48 crore to the MCC. First, they will be sent letters to clear the dues. In case of no reply, legal notices will be sent to all defaulting companies and departments.

There are 1,77,700 water connections in city and the monthly collection should have been Rs. 5 crore to Rs. 6 crore. However, the collection for the last two months had been around Rs 4 crore to Rs. 5 crore — a short of Rs. 80 lakh to Rs. 90 lakh, Hegde said.

Water meters

The Commissioner said water meter had not been installed in around 50,000 houses in city and notices are issued once in three months to get the meter connection. Till then, the MCC was collecting a minimum amount of Rs. 160 from each house. Plans are afoot to install water meter by the MCC in those houses. The coming Council meeting will decide whether the installation should be made free of cost or collect money from residents concerned, he added.

Rain Water Harvest

A Rs. 1.73 crore action plan to build soak pits and other civil works at various public parks for Rain Water Harvesting has been prepared under 15th Finance Plan. The parks which are selected for this are; Bharath Matha Park and Mathura Park in Kuvempunagar, Freedom Fighters' Park in Subbarayanakere, Subbarao Park in Niveditanagar, park near Sangam Circle, 12th Main Road Park in Saraswathipuram, Shakthinagar Park, Ambedkar Park in Ashokapuram, Kuppanna Park in Nazarbad, Nage Park in Siddarthanagar, Nehru Park in Udayagiri, N.R. Mohalla's Shivaji Park, J.P. Nagar's Shivakumara Swamiji Park and Hebbal's Basavanagudi Park. Also, soak pit will be built on High Tension Road in Ward No. 3, he said.

The Commissioner said citizens, who are building houses on sites measuring more than 20 feet X 30 feet must build soak pits compulsorily or else an additional 5 percent water cess will be charged for them. However, those who provide rain water harvesting will get 10 percent discount in water bill. The idea behind this was to encourage people to adopt rain water harvesting to save precious water.

Don't connect water pipe

from roof to storm water drains

Civic Body warns citizens

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (SBD&SSV)- Have you provided connection for water from roof of your house to storm water drain? Then, better you disconnect it within 15 days or else be ready to pay a fine of Rs. 2,000.

This warning has been issued by Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde in the wake of rain water entering storm water drain resulting in chocking of manholes especially during rains.

Reason for this had been giving connection from the roof to the storm water drain. As a result, rain water gets mixed with sewage water, comes out of the manhole and enters houses in low-lying areas.

He said it would not be possible for the MCC workers to take up repair works till the water level receded. Ultimately, it would cause inconvenience to the general public. In view of this, the Corporation wants all those who have such water connections to disconnect it within 15 days or else a fine of Rs.2,000 would be levied upon them. Besides, those who were building new houses must take note of this, he warned.

HC warns to initiate contempt proceedings against MCC Chief

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (RK&SSV)- Karnataka High Court has warned of initiating contempt proceedings against the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner for his failure to file a status report on under-construction illegal building that was causing obstruction to people's movement, in city.

Uday Kumar and four others from Mysuru, had filed a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) in HC contending that the commercial building being constructed by Nuchikatte at an important circle in N.R. Mohalla, was obstructing people's movement.

A Division Bench, headed by Chief Justice A.S. Oka, had ordered the MCC on Sept. 22 to file Action Taken Report (ATR) report within four weeks. However, the MCC had failed to file it. When the case came up for hearing yesterday, the CJ expressed his displeasure over non-filing of report by the MCC Commissioner within the stipulated time (four weeks), and warned him of initiating the contempt proceeding against him if he fails to file the same within four weeks. The case was posted to January 12, 2021.

When contacted, MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde said Zonal Officers would attend Courts in cases pertaining to the PILs. He came to know about non-submission of ATR to HC based on its verdict on Sept. 22.

As per HC direction, he would collect all information about the case and furnish the report to HC soon.

Tiring Justice

IN BLACK & WHITE

Vikram Muthanna

Yesterday, the Supreme Court delivering its reason behind granting interim bail to Arnab Goswami, Editor-in-Chief of Republic TV, in the abetment to suicide case, held that Courts should, "ensure that criminal law does not become a weapon for selective harassment of citizens." Phew! Thank you SC for that judgement...but what's the use?

All we can say is "My Lords, Law will continue to be weaponised by law-makers and law-keepers against citizens if erring Judges, Police, bureaucrats and politicians are not punished." We say this because, the SC itself has been a victim of its Lower Courts' incompetence, corruption and misuse of law.

In 2004, a journalist in Gujarat heard that the Police and Courts were aiding businessmen to settle scores with their rivals. In order to expose this nexus, he got a Metropolitan Magistrate in Ahmedabad to issue a bailable warrant against none other than the then President of India Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam!

Not only that, he also managed to get a bailable warrant against the then Chief Justice of India V. N. Khare and the then sitting SC Judge B.P. Singh! And all he had to do was bribe the Magistrate. The price? Just Rs. 40,000! The shocked CJI Khare noted "If this is the state of affairs, only God knows what will happen to the country."

Well, since the erring Magistrate was not punished, the rot continues. Today people go to Court to delay justice, not get it. And inhumane Judges have only perpetuated this trend.

Justice is so delayed in our system that today Courts are a place where one goes to settle scores, not seek justice. From land deals to false dowry cases; from false rape cases to contract cases, a Court case is used as a mechanism to delay and arm-twist our enemy. Because a Court case will leave a victim perpetually oscillating between "adjournments" and "next Court hearing." It leaves the innocent in a state of limbo forcing them to negotiate and finally succumb to the demands of the perpetrators.

It is because of this delay in justice that today local rowdies and mafia run parallel Courts. In fact, today most cases, be it accident or land dispute, are settled by the goons. Also sometimes it is settled in a Police Station. The reason is because it is quick and to some extent, even judicious.

So yes, today Courts are perceived as an instrument of blackmail rather than a temple of justice. Worse, High Courts are NOT taking cue from SC judgements and exercising their inherent power to quash false and frivolous complaints. This could be because they do not fear repercussions.

While the Lower Court Judges can be punished, the Judges of Higher Courts can only be removed if two thirds of the MPs want to impeach a particular Judge. This is the same number needed to amend the Constitution! So these Superior Court Judges have been attested almost the same importance as our Constitution!

It was the former Chief Justice of India (CJI) T.S. Thakur, who said "as long as judiciary exists, people have nothing to fear." But then isn't Judiciary only as good as its Judges? And Judges are only human so they will respond effectively to punishment not sermon. May be, it is time to move the Judicial Standards and Accountability Bill which is being worked on since 2010.

The SC also made an important observation, which is "bail is the solemn expression of the humanness of the justice system." So hopefully now at least a few of the 91,568 bail pleas pending before the High Courts and 1.96 lakh bail applications before the District Courts will be entertained.

Yesterday, the Bombay High Court also passed a memorable judgement when it quashed the Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation's (BMC) order to demolish actor Kangana Ranaut's office and appointed a valuer to decide on the compensation amount the BMC will have to pay Kangana for their "malicious" action.

Yes, that's good news for all of us as it is a stern warning against high-handedness but then... isn't BMC going to pay Kangana from its coffers, which was filled by the Mumbai tax-payers? Why should the tax-payers be punished for the action of a high-handed bureaucrat? Let the decision-making officer pay for it. That will teach future officers not to blindly follow the instructions of their political masters before destroying the life and property of citizens.

Now what about the Police? There have been many instances where they have indulged in "fixing." And this "fixing" also contributes to clogging the justice delivery mechanism. Last night Arnab Goswami asked, "Will the people who illegally jailed me be punished?" Well, may be not, but he could get some money.

This reminds us of ISRO scientist Nambi Narayanan, who in 1994 was falsely charged with espionage and then investigated by the CBI, then discharged, but then the State Government ordered a re-investigation which was quashed by the SC. Yet, no action was taken against the erring Police officials.

But in 2018, the SC awarded him a compensation of Rs. 50 lakh and constituted a Committee headed by a former Judge of the SC to find out ways and means to take appropriate steps against the erring officials. Steps are still waiting to be taken.

The Government machinery is so large, so slow and so traumatic to deal with that most people would say "Thank God" when a false case is over. Whether they win or lose, they find solace blaming their fate or karma.

For now, influential people like Arnab can come out of jail and scream their frustrations and may be even get compensation, but unless the Lower Courts get more astute Judges who follow the SC judgements, the common man may have to continue waiting for bail. Wait and wait...

Legislators threaten to move privilege motion against DC

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (MTY, PM & SSV)- Congress and Janata Dal (Secular) MLAs' are out for Deputy Commissioner Rohini Sindhuri's scalp and have threatened to move a privilege motion against her in the coming winter session of the State Legislature which will begin from Dec. 7.

Addressing a news conference here this morning, former Minister and K.R. Nagar MLA S.R.Mahesh sought to know from the DC, will an MLA attend the 'Spandana' programme if she and Tahsildhar sit and decide the meeting date?

"As MLA, I have to attend around 30 marriages a day. The DC must keep the area legislator informed about any Government programme. However, she has not bothered to inform me about the Spandana programme in K.R. Nagar. This is clear breach of protocol and a privilege motion will be moved against her in the coming Winter Session," he added.

Taking a dig at her style of functioning, Mahesh said she cannot function here as per her whims and fancies. Let her resign, join politics and contest election. The people of Mysuru are known for their self-respect and they would not allow it if was at stake. It was unbecoming on her part to leak her letter to Hunsur Congress MLA H.P. Manjunath on social media. "I am not going to keep quiet if Spandana programme is held in the absence of local MLA. The DC and District Administration will be held responsible if anything happens on that day without the local legislator," he warned.

On Friday, Hunsur MLA Manjunath slammed DC Rohini Sindhuri of 'dictatorial' attitude and accused Chief Ministers of two States supporting her from behind. All previous DCs have worked in close co-ordination with the elected representatives. But, the incumbent DC was behaving like 'Hitler' just because the CMs of two States were supporting her. "We have seen many DCs in the past but no one behaved like the present DC he claimed."

Defending his action of openly questioning her in recently-held KDP meeting, he said it was common for the elected representatives to question the district officials. It was common for officials to furnish reply in the next meeting. However, Rohini took his question personally and shot off a letter to him the next day. Though, he had not received it the 'letter' was making rounds in social media. This has given the room for suspicion whether the DC purposefully leaked letter to social media. "Where was the need for her to mention only about land conversion in the letter to me. This shows that the DC has done it to blackmail me by claiming that she has documents regarding land conversion. I will not bow to such lame threats. I can also talk on your personal matters but I will not stoop to such level," he maintained.

Tender apology or face action

Meanwhile, Congress MLC Raghu Achar has demanded DC Rohini Sindhuri to tender apology to MLA Manjunath failing which a privilege motion will be moved against her in the coming Session. He said "I do not know how she passed IAS exam. What she has done is an insult to all 224 MLAs and 75 MLCs. Rohini must apologised for her behaviour within three days failing which privilege motion will be moved against her."

Will work towards fulfilling the objectives of D. Devaraj Urs : Raghu Kautilya

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (PM&DM)- R. Raghu Kautilya, the new Chairman of D. Devaraj Urs Backward Classes Development Corporation, said that he will sincerely work towards fulfilling the objectives for which the Corporation has been established.

Addressing a press meet at Patrakarthara Bhavan here this morning, Raghu said that 12th century reformer Basavanna worked towards building a wholesome society by unifying all Kayaka Samajas. Likewise, former Chief Minister D. Devaraj Urs too worked for social upliftment of all Kayaka Samajas through academic, economic and social empowerment.

Pointing out that over 200 backward communities of the State, including micro-communities come under the Corporation, headquartered in Bengaluru, he said that he was thankful to Chief Minister Yediyurappa and State BJP Chief Nalin Kumar Kateel for nominating him to such an important Corporation.

Asserting that the State BJP Government is committed to the empowerment of all backward communities, he said that the Corporation will work out ways to impart latest skills to members of communities who earn their livelihood through their family vocation and trades.

Highlighting that the Corporation has many plans for betterment of rural livelihood, he said that the Corporation will advance loans for its programmes and at the same time will also constantly monitor re-payment of loans by beneficiaries. He further said that a mechanism for monitoring the loan repayment will be put in place shortly. City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa, leaders Giridhar, Jogi Manju, Vaneesh Kumar and others were present at the press meet.

'Maharani' jibe an insult to Mysore Royal family

Raghu Kautilya said Deputy Commissioner (DC) Rohini Sindhuri has taken charge only two months ago and he has heard that she has served with efficiency in her earlier postings. It was not right on the part of the MLA to raise objections against her in such a short time.

Stating that the MLA can pinpoint any inappropriate decisions by the DC and give suitable suggestions, he said instead of doing this, Manjunath was unnecessarily targeting the DC with a selfish motive.

While pointing out that officials should also not show disrespect and disregard to people's representatives, especially the Legislators, Raghu urged the people's representatives to give constructive suggestions instead of attacking officials for their own personal reasons.

Let's play cricket

All precautionary measures are in place and it is also the responsibility of the players to follow the guidelines in containing the spread of the pandemic, Sudhakar Rai said and added that before the start of the match, umpires will be briefing all the players about on-field and off-field behavior. Players now are asked to dress in cricket attire at their home and come to the field and use their own napkins/ towels, he added.

Stating that Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) — use of sanitisers, temperature checks, ban on using saliva on the ball and so on — will be in place to ensure players' safety, Rai said that players too must be responsible in following the guidelines.

Mentioning that spectators are allowed at the venue making sure that they maintain social distance, Rai informed that N. Ranga Rao and Sons will be providing sanitisers for free at the venue during the entire cricket matches.

Chamundi Vihar too open

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports (DYES) Assistant Director Omprakash said: "Chamundi Vihar Stadium is open for public since Nov. 9. Though no tournaments are being conducted yet, the venue was open for practice sessions."

Stating that many people who visit the Stadium for morning and evening walk give excuses that it is difficult to breathe by wearing mask, he said that it is everyone's responsibility to contain the spread of the pandemic by following the guidelines and asked public to co-operate in this regard.

The Prime Minister is slated to fly to Hyderabad and visit Bharat BioTech, which is working on Covaxin — India's first indigenous vaccine candidate, followed by a visit to Serum Institute of India (SII) in Pune, which has partnered with global pharma giant AstraZeneca and Oxford University for a COVID-19 vaccine.

PM Modi is expected to review the status of the vaccine, including its launch, production and distribution mechanisms during the visit. "As India enters a decisive phase of the fight against COVID-19, PM Narendra Modi's visit to these facilities and discussions with the scientists will help him get a first-hand perspective of the preparations, challenges and roadmap in India's endeavour to vaccinate its citizens," the Prime Minister's Office tweeted yesterday.

Hanging Bridges of Kodagu: Reality Check - 3

Fate of Kanive Bridge hangs in balance

Kushalnagar, Nov. 28 (Akshay &BCT)-The hanging bridge built across Cauvery River near Sri Ramalingeshwara Temple at Kanive close to Kushalnagar in Somwarpet taluk has been severely damaged by floods that have been wreaking havoc since the last three years. It is an 80-metre-long bridge constructed in 2011 at an estimated cost of Rs. 47 lakh by the Malnad Area Development Board.

Bridge Man Bharadwaj

It is a long bridge connecting from one Cauvery River bank to the other supported by steel pillars and piers where scores of people and students use the bridge to cross over. The steel rods that hold the bridge are damaged and the wooden planks meant for pedestrian commute have come apart.

Thousands of people, who depended on this bridge for their daily commute to work, are now scared about their future, with the bridge no longer safe for commuting. Realising the danger, even the Kodagu District Administration has banned the movement of people on the fragile structure.

The hanging bridge at Kanive stands at a distance of 200 metres from the confluence of River Cauvery and Harangi. Water here flows in full force and during rains, lakhs of cusecs of water flows thus submerging the hanging bridge. Due to sheer force of water, the bridge sways and this can be seen from a distance.

The bridge, constructed by Bridge Man Padma Shri Girish Bharadwaj, allows villagers from North Kodagu to connect with the border region of Periyapatna taluk in Mysuru district and vice-versa. Before the bridge was built, villagers were facing a tough time from several years as there was not even proper boat service to reach the other side of the river. They had to reach Kodagu by travelling over 15 kms by bus.

The bridge connects many villages of Periyapatna taluk in Mysuru district, including Dodda Kammanahalli, Shanubhoganahalli, Dindigadu, Muttina Mullusoge, Kanagalu, Hanumanthapura and Karadi Lakkanakere with Kodagu villages such as Kanive, Bhuvanagiri, Huluse, Hakke, Koodige, Mararu and Hebbale.

The bridge was built with the help of 20 workers and it is 33 ft high and two concrete pillars have been built on both sides of the river and the pillars are connected with 83.5 metre iron rope. Galvanised iron ropes have been fixed on both sides of the bridge for safety purpose.

Following the damage to the bridge, the Police have now erected barricades across the bridge preventing the entry of people. With the closure of his hanging bridge, villagers along the border are forced to take a detour of about 20 kms via Avarti to reach Kushalnagar and other places.

After the floods, Madikeri MLA M.P. Appachu Ranjan had made an attempt to repair the bridge by fixing the broken planks and replacing the broken ones. However, these repairs are not enough to ensure the safety of villagers and students crossing over from one side to another. There is a desperate need to repair the bridge and facilitate smooth movement.

Now the bridge has been opened after minor repairs. But it is still dangerous and during monsoon, it will be completely closed.

Since floods are an annual occurrence, villagers have demanded a permanent solution — build a new hanging bridge at an elevated space so that flood waters do not reach the bridge. Madhu from Kanive says that the Kanive Srirama Temple or the Sri Ramalingeshwara Temple is a tourist spot where hundreds of photographers come with their cameras annually. Also, the river banks connect Kodagu district and Mysuru district. The District Administration must think of a permanent solution, he added.

MLC wants Tribal Status for Kodava community

Seeks establishment of Kodava Language Authority

Codava National Council (CNC) Convenor N.U. Nachappa with MLCs B.K. Hariprasad and A.H. Vishwanath during Codava National Day celebrations in Madikeri on Nov. 26.

Madikeri, Nov.28- Congress MLC B.K. Hariprasad has urged the Government to grant Tribal Status to Kodava community and also form Kodava Language Authority.

He was speaking at the 30th Annual Codava National Day coinciding with Indian Constitution Day celebrations organised by Codava National Council (CNC) at a private hotel on the outskirts of Madikeri on Thursday.

Pointing out that though the population of Kodavas was a little over 2 lakh, there are over 10,000 Government servants and Army officers from the community, he opined that the community very much deserved to get all rights under the Indian Constitution.

Warning the Government against ignoring the community because of its low population, he said that without the Constitution, no one from the economically backward communities, including himself, could have entered the Parliament.

Asserting that a committed and continuous fight is needed for saving Kodava culture, language and customs, Hariprasad called for apolitical support for CNC President N.U. Nachappa's fight for Codava land.

BJP MLC and former Minister A.H. Vishwanath, in his address, said that the whole-hearted support of everyone was needed for achieving success in the struggle for getting due rights.

Calling for holding a meeting of researchers who have carried out the ethnographic study of the Kodava tribe, thanks to CNC's relentless effort through Karnataka State Tribal Research Institute (KSTRI), Mysuru, the MLC noted that the discipline, lifestyle, customs and practices of Kodavas cannot be seen in any other community and as such, the Kodava community need to be accorded Tribal Status.

MLC Veena Achaiah said that she had raised her voice for rights of the Kodavas in the Legislative Council several times in the past. Asserting that she will raise the issue once again in the Council during next month's winter session, Veena said that she will speak with more vigour this time as her fellow MLCs Vishwanath and Hariprasad have expressed their support for the Kodava cause.

Bengaluru Kodava Samaja President M.T. Nanaiah, who is a senior High Court advocate, said that taking part in the struggle is the best way of expressing support for Codava land.

CNC Convenor Nachappa contended that Kodava customs, practices and traditions, land, language and culture can only be safeguarded by the Indian Constitution. Stating that Kodavas must Constitutionally get geo-political autonomy, gun rights and land rights, he asserted that the struggle will continue till the goal is achieved. Resolutions were adopted and passed in the presence of distinguished guests in this regard.

During the last Parliamentary session in Dec. 2019, while debating on the ST Constitution Amendment Bill, MPs B.K. Hariprasad and Kupendra Reddy spoke about the inclusion of Kodava tribe in the ST list, he said adding that this issue had attracted the attention of the whole country and conscience of law-makers.

As a result of CNC's relentless effort and innumerable petitions to the Union Government, the Centre directed the State Government to conduct an ethnographic study on Kodava tribalism. Hence, Karnataka Government entrusted this responsibility to KSTRI, Mysuru, he said.

Earlier, Nachappa set off the Codava National Day programme by firing in the air. Members of Valleydew Arts Team performed Kolaat, Kattiyaat and Bolkaat on the occasion.

Standing tall at Vontikoppal Traffic Junction

Arise, awake and stop not till the goal is reached is a slogan popularised by Swami Vivekananda, whose giant-size cut-out now stands tall in the beautifully laid-out Vivekananda Railway Park at Vontikoppal Traffic Signal Junction near Sri Lakshmi Venkataramanaswamy Temple and next to the Railway Hospital on KRS Road, Mysuru. This neglected piece of land was converted into a Park by the South Western Railway, Mysuru Division, last May when Aparna Garg was the Divisional Railway Manager (DRM). Asked why it was given the name Vivekananda Railway Park, Aparna Garg had said that this name was very appropriate as the park was very close to Sri Ramakrishna Ashram on KRS Road and Sri Ramakrishna Vidyashala just a stone's throw away in Yadavagiri. Moreover, Swami Vivekananda was the disciple of Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa, and hence, the decision was taken to name the park after the Monk.

Bengaluru, Nov. 28 (SSV)- The 86th Akhila Bharatha Kannada Sahitya Sammelana will be held in Haveri from Feb. 26 to Feb.28, 2021.

This was decided at the State Executive Committee meeting of Kannada Sahitya Parishat presided by Parishat President Manu Baligar here on Tuesday.

In a press release, he said the meeting decided to submit a memorandum to simplify guidelines in the wake of decreasing COVID-19 cases in the State, and to give permission to hold 'Akshara Jathre.' The issue of holding the Kannada meet has already been discussed with Home Minister and Haveri District Minister Basavaraj Bommai, Agriculture Minister B.C. 'Kannada Kayaka Varsha' to promote usage of Kannada in Govt. Offices, public spaces

Bengaluru, Nov. 28- At a time when there are heated debates on 'Hindi imposition', the State Government has decided to observe this year as 'Kannada Kayaka Varsha' (Nov. 1, 2020 to Oct. 31, 2021) to promote usage of Kannada in all Government Offices from the Ministry-level to the Gram Panchayat-level and also in public spaces.

While the Government's language policy makes it mandatory to use Kannada in official communication, this programme would ensure its implementation. The programme would be effective for a year, in retrospect from Nov. 1, this year.

In a circular, Chief Secretary T.M. Vijay Bhaskar has directed all Government Offices to ensure that their official communication, files and drafts are in Kannada.

Government apps should be in Kannada and the State's digital platform should include Kannada, the circular said. Directions and services offered in Government and Private Hospitals, para-medical institutions have to include communication in Kannada, the circular added.

The 19-point directions also stated that important roads and public spaces in the State should be named after eminent personalities of the State, apart from ensuring that commercial products produced in Karnataka should mandatorily have information in Kannada, too.

WORD OF THE DAY

Fulvous

Pronunciation: FULL-vus.
Meaning: Of a dull brownish yellow : tawny.
Origin: Fulvous has never been a common word. You are most likely to encounter it in texts from the 19th century—unless, that is, you care about ducks. In that case, you might know about a kind of whistling-duck called the fulvous tree duck, which is a brownish duck with long legs and a long neck and an unusual world distribution. It lives in isolated populations in North America, South America, India, and Africa—remarkably without geographic variation. But back to fulvous: it shares a meaning with its direct ancestor, the Latin word fulvus, and fulvus itself is believed to possibly share an ancestor with flavus, Latin for "yellow."
Example: The dog had an unusual coat of fulvous fur with black and white splotches.

THE ODD WORD

Faience

Glazed coloured earthware.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Foaming at the mouth

Meaning: This phrase is used to describe someone who is very angry. It means to be furious.
Origin: It likely originates from a virus called rabies, as it can cause literal foaming at the mouth for the animal that's infected with it. Rabies is a deadly virus that both humans and animals can catch.
A bite from an infected animal, like a bat, is usually how the virus spreads. One symptom of rabies is that it makes swallowing very difficult. Consequently, saliva builds up and there is a "foaming" at the mouth.
This expression is at least over 400 years old. For instance, in 1601, William Shakespeare, a famous poet and playwright, used this common phrase in the play Julius Caesar: "He fell down in the market-place, and foamed at mouth, and was speechless."
